Testimonials:

- I'm happy with what they are teaching me. I believe they are teaching everything very well and beautifully.
- It is nice to know some rules about this culture and have better communication; to know how to say 'no' in a polite way.
- The most important thing I learned this week was to value my Spanish language but to give myself the opportunity to speak English without forgetting my roots.
- The most important thing I learned this week is not to be afraid to ask questions when I don't understand.
- I like the tutors. They express themselves well, have much patience, and are nice.
- Thank you for everything. You have no idea how this course helped me to better my English.
